The excess expenditure over and above contracted prices incurred by the Tender Inviting Authority in making such purchases from any other sources or in the open market or from any other Tenderer who has quoted higher rates and other losses sustained in the process, shall be recovered from the Security Deposit or from any other money due and become due to the supplier and in the event of such amount being insufficient, the balance will be recovered personally from the supplier.

21.10 In all the above conditions, the decision of the Tender Inviting Authority, viz. Director AIIA, New Delhi would be final and binding, in case of any dispute regarding all cases under tender procedure or in any other non-ordinary situation and would be acceptable to all.

21.11 All litigations related to the supplier for any defaults will be done by Tender Inviting Authority and his decision will be final and binding

22. SAVING CLAUSE

No suit, prosecution or any legal proceedings shall lie against the Tender Inviting Authority or any person for anything that is done in good faith or intended to be done in pursuance of the tender.

23. RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES

- (i) The Director, AIIA, New Delhi and the supplier shall make every effort to resolve, amicably by direct informal negotiation any disagreement or dispute arising between them under or in connection with the contract,
- (ii) In case of a dispute or difference arising between the Director, AIIA, New Delhi and a supplier relating to any matter arising out of or connected with this agreement, such dispute or difference shall be settled in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The venue of arbitration shall be New Delhi.

24. APPEAL:

No Appeal shall be preferred while the tender is in process and until tender is finalized and Notification of award is issued by the Director, AIIA, New Delhi.

25. CONTACTING THE DIRECTOR, AIIA BY THE BIDDER:

- a. No bidder shall contact to the Director, AIIA on any matter relating to its bid, from the time of bid opening to the time the contract is awarded.
- b. Any effort by a bidder to influence the Director, AIIA in the Purchaser's bid evaluation, bid comparison or contract award decisions may result in rejection of the bidder's bid. Tender Inviting Authority or the Tender Accepting Authority, may seek bonfide clarifications from bidders relating to the bids submitted by them during the evaluation of bids.

26. FRAUDULENT AND CORRUPT PRACTICES:

For bidders:

It is purchaser's policy to require that the bidders, suppliers and contractors and their authorized representatives/agents observe the highest standard of ethics during the procurement and execution of such contracts. (In this context, any action taken by a bidder, supplier, contractor, or by their authorized representative /agent, to influence the procurement process or contract execution for undue advantage is improper) In pursuance of this policy, the purchaser;

(a) defines, for the purposes of this provision, the terms set forth below as follows:

- i. "corrupt practice" is the offering, giving, receiving or soliciting, directly or indirectly, of anything of value to influence improperly the actions of another party ("another party" refers to a public official acting in relation to the procurement process or contract execution). In this context, "public official" include staff and employee of other organization taking or reviewing procurement decisions.
- ii. "fraudulent practice" is any act or omission, including a misrepresentation, that knowingly or recklessly misleads, or attempts to mislead, a party to obtain a financial or other benefit or to avoid an obligation (a "party" refers to a public official; the term "benefit" and "obligation" relate to the procurement process or contract execution; and the "act or omission" is intended to influence the procurement process or contract execution).

iii. "collusive practice" is an arrangement between two or more parties designed to achieve an improper purpose, including to influence improperly the actions of another party ["parties" refers to participant in the procurement process (including public officials) attempting to establish bid prices at artificial, non-competitive level].

iv. "coercive practice" is impairing or harming, or threatening to impair or harm, directly or indirectly, any party or the property of the party to influence improperly the actions of a party (a "party" refers to a participant in the procurement process or contract execution).

v. "obstructive practice" is

(v.1) deliberately destroying, falsifying, altering or concealing of evidence material to the investigation or making false statements to investigators in order to materially impede a investigation into allegations of a corrupt, fraudulent, coercive or collusive practice; and/or threatening, harassing or intimidating any party to prevent it from disclosing its knowledge of matters relevant to the investigation or from pursuing the investigation; or

(v.2) acts intended to materially impede the exercise of the purchaser's inspection and audit rights provided for under sub-clause (e) below.

(b) will reject a proposal for award if it determines that the bidder considered for award has, directly or through an agent, engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive, coercive or obstructive practices in competing for the contract in question;

(c) will cancel the contract if the purchaser determines at any time that the bidder, supplier and contractors and their sub contractors engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive, or coercive practices.

(d) will sanction a firm or individual, including declaring ineligible, either indefinitely or for a stated period of time, to be awarded a contract if it at any time determines that the firm has, directly or through an agent, engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive, coercive or obstructive practices in competing for, or in executing, a contract; and

- (e) will have the right to inspect the accounts and records of the bidders, supplier, and contractors and their subcontractors/authorized representatives and to have them audited by auditors appointed by the purchaser.

For suppliers:

If the Director, AIIA determines that a Supplier has engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive, coercive or obstructive practices, in competing for or in executing the Contract, then the Director, AIIA may, after giving 7 days' notice to the Supplier, terminate the Supplier's employment under the Contract and cancel the contract, and the procurement will be made at the risk and cost of the supplier.

(a) For the purposes of this Sub-Clause:

- (i) "corrupt practice" is the offering, giving, receiving or soliciting, directly or indirectly, of anything of value to influence improperly the actions of another party;
- (ii) "fraudulent practice" is any act or omission, including a misrepresentation, that knowingly or recklessly misleads, or attempts to mislead, a party to obtain a financial or other benefit or to avoid an obligation;
- (iii) "collusive practice" is an arrangement between two or more parties designed to achieve an improper purpose, including to influence improperly the actions of another party;
- (iv) "coercive practice" is impairing or harming, or threatening to impair or harm, directly or indirectly, any party or the property of the party to influence improperly the actions of a party;
- (v) "obstructive practice" is
- (aa) deliberately destroying, falsifying, altering or concealing of evidence material to the investigation or making false statements to investigators in order to materially impede a purchaser investigation into allegations of a corrupt, fraudulent, coercive or collusive practice; and/or threatening, harassing or intimidating any party to prevent it from disclosing its knowledge of matters relevant to the investigation or from pursuing the investigation; or
- (bb) acts intended to materially impede the exercise of the purchaser's inspection and audit rights provided for.
