P. FORCE MAJEURE

1. If at any time, during the continuance of the agreement the performance in whole or in part, by the firm, of any obligation specified in the agreement, is prevented, restricted, delayed or interfered, by reason of war or hostility, act of the public enemy, civic commotion, sabotage, act of State or direction from statutory authority, explosion, epidemic, quarantine restriction, fire, floods, natural calamities or any act of God, (hereinafter referred to as event), provided notice given by the firm to AIIA within seven calendar days from the "date of occurrence" thereof, the firm may be excused from performance of its obligation. Provided further that the obligations under the Agreement shall be resumed by the firm, as soon as practicable, after such event comes to an end or ceases to exist. The decision of AIIA as to whether the obligations may be so resumed (and the time frame within which the obligations may be resumed) or not, shall be final and conclusive.

2. However, the Force Majeure events mentioned above will not in any way cause extension of the period of the Agreement.
